

Memories of Tirau A history of Tirau

by Peg Cummins

Tirau has a long interesting history, some of which is captured between these pages, The Maori have been there for centuries, followed by the farming pioneers. A community sprang up and flourished as the countryside developed. Now Tirau is a destination with people flocking there from all points of the compass. It is a fascinating story!

This 311 page book includes chapters on:

Geology of the Tirau area
Maori History
Before 1900
Okoroire and Tapapa area
Years in decades from 1900 to present day
Tirau School, Railway, County, Farming, Churches,
Excerpts and Memoirs and Experiences
Organisations
Family Stories

Plus hundreds of early photos throughout the book

Copies of the book can be obtained from Tirau Information Centre, The Merchant of Tirau, The Honey Shop Tirau or by post from:

To Tirau Historical Society
c/- Peter Gray,
226 Parapara Rd,
Tirau.

Name:

Address:

I would to order book /s

Please enclose a cheque for $35per book plus $5postage

